THE BASE BALL CONFERENCE TODAY.

A PREMIER'S SPEECH. Doings Today in the Catholic Congress at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, MD., Nov. 12 .- The Catholic congress was called to order at 10:30 this morning. Bishop LaFleche of Canada said the prayer. M. DeFansler of Indiana moved to appoint a committee to consider the expediency of holding secret conventions of Catholics annually. Referred.

Hon. Honore Mercier, prime minister of Quebec, was introduced and received with great applause. He said: We have assembled to honor a great prelate. He regarded the honor paid him in being invited to say a few words as an honor intended for the country from which he came, and especially to the province of Quebec, which he represented. It would not therefore seem strange that, appearing as he did for great province in Canada, he should regard the career of Archbishop Carroll in his relations to the state rather than the church. Carroll was a great statesman. The fathers of thi country had no greater ally than Carroll. Had Vashington and Franklin and Carroll failed in their work it would have been a calamity to America and humanity. In the glorious work Carroll had no small share. He was broad and expansive. The Declaration of Independonce was a revelation to mankind, acknowledging the rights it proclaimed came from God. It laid down the principles on which the greatest amount of liberty could be guaranteed. Perhaps no man did more for America than Franklin and he was Carroll's friend, and who can tell how much of Carroll's spirit Franklin imbibed. To members of the Roman church it was a dispensation of Providence that Carroll did such good service for his country and that his influence was commensurate with his

LIBERTY OF WORSHIP. CONTRACTS FOR STEEL AWARDED .- Secretary The statutes of every country yet contained Tracy has awarded to Carnegie, Phipps & Co. laws directed against the liberty of worship. America was not yet free from these prejudices, and before Carroll's influence had been felt the Congress of Philadelphia protested against the Quebec act passed in England granting freedom of worship to Catholics of Canada. This imprudent protest was not without its effect upon the struggle for American independence. But the mistake was nobly re-paired; when the time came to affirm true principles the largest liberty was proclaimed, and today we see in your republic the magnifi-cent spectacle of sincere men, differing in re-ligious belief, united as brethren in their love of country, in their devotion to the principles of civil and religious liberty. Speaking of education, he said that under no form of government are moral and intellectual training more necessary than in a republic. No grander service could be rendered, therefore, to your country than the establishing of a grand Catholic university; no greater monument could be erected to the memory of Carroll.

In the city hallowed be the name of Washington, the capital of the freest people on earth, the Roman Catholic church makes to your country the gift of a great university where your people will learn the grand lesson that loyalty to God means loyalty to the stade.

We in Ouelee are determined to be guided in We in Quebec are determined to be guided in public matters by justice. Thus, when the Protestant minority of lower Canada demanded the right of educating their children in their own schools the French Canadians and Roman Catholics hesitated not one moment to grant to the Protestant minority hoped that the university at Washington would welcome Canadian students to it, and that the two peoples may find a still closer bond of union in seeing their children studying the same sciences, in the same halls, under the same masters, for the love of God and country. Mr. Mercier closed with quoting Longfellow's poem as applicable to "your country as well as o your university, and their union": "Sail on, O Union, strong and great," &c. Mr. Mercier was applauded and cheered to

CORDIAL TO CANADA. Edward F. Fagan of New York offered the following, which was adopted by a rising vote:

"Resolved, That the representatives of the American Catholic congress tender their cordial greetings to the people of Canada and offer their grateful acknowledgments and congratulations to her for the warm sentiments of love entertained for this country and people, as expressed by her noble son, Premier Monsignor Gadd of England being called for, expressed cordial feelings of Cardinal Man-ning and of Bishop Vaughen, whom he represented, and desired to convey their feelings of deep respect and heartfelt congratulations this noble congress.

Peter L. Foy of St. Louis then read a paper on the social question. James H. Campbell of Philadelphia read one on temperance; Herman Allen of Chicago on "church music," and Richard L. Clarke, LL.D., of New York, on what Catholics have done in the last 100 years."

At the opening this morning the stock market reacted from the depression of yesterday, although the business done, except in the half dozen leading stocks, was small in the extreme. First prices showed advances over the final figures of yesterday of from 1/8 to 3/2 per cent, and in many cases further slight advances were scored in the early trading. The advancing tendency met with a check, however, from the extreme weakness of New England, which, under considerable pressure to sell, yielded readily and rapidly, losing 1/2 per cent in the first twenty minutes and touching 43/2. The downward movement was then checked, and though New England failed to recover promptly the rest of the list soon showed the strength of the market and were quickly placed upon a higher level than that of the opening. A CONTINENTAL BLIZZARD.

Again the Great Storm Rallies to its Deadly Work.

RAILROADS BLOCKADED ALL ALONG THE ROCK MOUNTAIN SLOPE-DESPERATION OF SNOW-BOUND MEN-NINE HUMAN LIVES LOST AND CAT-THE AND SHEEP PERISH BY TENS OF TROUSANDS.

CLAYTON, N. M., Nov. 12 .- Tidings from small towns and ranches off the railroad confirm the reported loss of life and property during the late storm. The total loss of life so far reported numbers nine souls. Several more are missing. The loss of sheep in and around this place alone is 26.000. Several large herds on the creek are not yet heard of. The loss in cattle will not be as heavy as at first supposed. Trains got through Monday, but were all snowed up again last night.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 12 .- Another blizzard is raging from the range country in this state south to the Texas line. The Fort Worth offi-Revells & Co. was the first witness called in the club had invited the delegates to a reception at cials sent out orders to start all trains Monday morning, but last night the road was comsouth and only got through with snow plows preceding it. Since then no trains have arrived on the Santa Fe, Midland and Fort Worth or Rio Grande. The Fort Worth passengers who were on the snow-bound trains at Texline and Clayton got as far as Trinidad, where they were again detained. The loss to cattle and sheep men in Colfax county cannot be estimated yet, but it is known that at least 7,000 head of fattened cattle, ready for market, have perished or scattered so that they are as good as lost to their owners, and not less than 3,000 head of sheep have died of exposure,

LOSS OF HUMAN LIFE. Six bodies of cowboys have been recovered to date and there are twelve or fifteen cowboys, herders and stock men missing, among them O. M. McQuinlan, a prominent citizen of Raton, who was cutting out beef steers from the S. W. Dorsey herd when the first blizzard struck the range ten days ago. Seventy-five men shoveling snow at Mount Dova were cut off from food for two days and nights. They got some sheep out of the snow drifts and roasted and ate them. A delayed passenger train was cut off from eating stations three days. They drew on an express car for food. The laborers who shoveled snow, when hungry, tapped freight cars containing canned goods with an iron chisel or other tools. Two live goats were being transported in a caboose, but the hungry men cut their throats and ate them raw. The report says a sick man, traveling with two children, lay on his back two days helpless. He had only crackers for nourish-

IN KANSAS AND THE "NATION." Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 12.—Dispatches from southern and western Kansas state that a blizzard is sweeping over that country. The wind turned to the north early last evening and brought with it snow, which in some localities is drifting badly. At Arkansas City near the Indian territory line a regular "norther" is reported. At Michaels the snow is flying and at Syracuse the blizzard is at its height.
Abilene, in the center of the state, reports severe wind and thick snow. No hindrance to railway travel has been reported as yet.

SOUTHERN COLORADO. TRINIDAD, Col., Nov. 12.-Late reports from New Mexico last night confirm the previous accounts of loss of life and increase in the number of bodies found in Colfax county. From Tram-peras came the news of the Mexican sheep herders perishing on the second day of the storm. Lugan Bros., on the Seneca, lost one herder. One man, name unknown, was abandoned by his two companions, who assisted him as long as they could in safety to themselves. His horse was found afterward frozen. Snow had been falling at Clayton since morning and a high wind was reported from there at 10 o'clock last night. It was then 16 degrees above zero and the mercury was falling rap-

If Three Republicans Bolt Him He Is Defeated.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12 .- A Tribune special from Des Moines, Iowa, says: Returns come in slowly, but the full vote has been received from eightyfour counties and they give Poyner, the republican candidate for lieutenant governor, a total of 149,442, and for Bestow (democrat) 148,805. The remaining counties are estimated to give Poyner a slight majority. As he has the smallest vote on the republican ticket it is certain that all the others, including the supreme judge, superintendent of instruction and railroad commissioner, are elected by majorities ranging from 2,000 to 4,000. The official count in Monona county yesterday shows that a demo-crat is elected to the legislature by one majority, this making the house a tie-firty each-and the senate will stand, republicans, 28; democrats, 22; a republican majority of on joint ballot. AN ELEPHANT. A Tribune special from Waterloo, Iowa, says now that the democrats have elected their ticket they find themselves already with an elephant on their hands in the shape of the high license plank. A prominent democratic attorney from Dubuque was in the city yester-day and stated that the Dubuque saloon keepers are beginning to protest against the high license proposed by the platform. He said that they would much prefer the present prohibi-tory law to the one contemplated by the license plank which Mr. Boies required to be incorporated in the platform as the price of his consenting to accept the nomination. Another Dubuque man said that before election, when it was feared that the saloon keepers would vote the republican ticket, they were notified that if they did so they would be closed up immediately. They observed the warning, but are now kicking vigorously against the fulfilment of the platform promises,

Senator Finn and Assemblyman Paschall, who bolted the caucus nomination of Senator Wilson two years ago and are pronounced anti-Allison, were elected. They are ready, they say, to vote for ex-Congressman Anderson to succeed Allison. This is believed to reduce Allison's possible majority in the legislature to

ONE MORE TROUSER CHANCE.

I am going to lose a little more money, for I find it pays to be over generous occasionally. You remember I sold 7 pairs (all I had) of $10 Trousers for $5. A hundred or more came and I pleased 7 men, and pleased a great many of the others with something else. Now I find I have a lot of regular $5 Trouser stuff that do not appear to suit my trade, so I am going to get rid of them. Will forset what I paid for them and ask you to take your choice at $3.88. There is about cloth enough to make I8 pair of trousers. You cannot expect the best patterns to wait for you, so come early.
